Moral Life and the Classical Tradition is a week-long program for rising high school juniors and seniors interested in the ancient philosophical tradition and its influence in the Christian moral life. The seminar consists of two complementary courses: Classical Moral Philosophy and Contemporary Issues in Moral Thought.

Classical Moral Philosophy
Plato's Apology, Crito, Phaedo, Euthyphro, and Meno, selections from Aristotle's Nicomachean Ethics, Politics, and De Anima.

Contemporary Issues in Moral Thought
The relationship of faith and reason, the Judeo-Christian tradition and scientific inquiry, sexual ethics, marriage and family, and biomedical ethics.
