

The 12th Annual Thomistic Seminar

An intensive summer
seminar for graduate students in philosophy.

Directed by John Haldane

Themes in Aquinas and Charles Taylor

Topics

Mind and Action
Embodiment and Selfhood
Individual and Society
Morality and Disagreement
Secularism and Religion

August 6–12, 2017
Princeton, New Jersey

The Seminar is open to graduate students in philosophy and to those in other disciplines who have significant philosophical training.

More information on the Seminar, including application procedures, is available online:

www.winst.org/ThomisticSeminar

Application Deadline • March 26, 2017

Questions may be emailed to R. J. Snell at rsnell@winst.org

Faculty

John Haldane

Baylor and St. Andrews

Sarah Broadie

St. Andrews

John O'Callaghan

Notre Dame

Candace Vogler

Chicago

Other faculty TBA

Sponsored by The Witherspoon Institute
www.winst.org